Class Description: This course is designed to introduce middle school students to how the US Government works, become familiar with national documents such as The Declaration of Independence and study the Constitution of the United States. The DVD series, taught by Rick Green is filmed in Independence Hall in Philadelphia. The series begins by providing the background of what led to the writing of the Declaration and later, the Constitution, and brief biographies about some of our founding fathers. As we learn about our government, we will also consider what it means to be Christian citizens that have a calling and responsibility to our nation and our fellow citizens..
