Year Theme: Structure and Style of Writing

Description: This class is from the Institute of Excellence in Writing. It is designed in such a way to remove the fear of not knowing what to write and replacing it with confidence and style. We will learn a variety of types of writing that will include reports, fables, stories based on pictures, descriptive, inventive writing, and formal critique. Each week, students will learn to write a 1-5 paragraph composition by creating an outline, writing a rough draft, which is edited by the parent, and then turning in a final copy the following week. They will learn a variety of stylistic techniques to incorporate in their writing including adjectives, verbs, adverbs, clauses, and sentence openers.

Prerequisites: Previous writing instruction is highly encouraged but not required as long as reading on grade level.
